

HOPE FUND

Hope Reichbach Fund

application deadline

February 18, 2024

for information about past recipients and to apply, visit hopeforbrooklyn.com

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

- 1 Who may apply for the stipend?
Any New York City residents in their freshman, sophomore or junior years of college may apply.
- 2 How much is the stipend?
Each student will receive $525 per week of full time work, plus unlimited MetroCards (or equivalent value). Internships are 10-weeks long, $5250 for the length of their summer internship.
- 3 What do I need to apply?
 - Completed application form
 - Resume
 - two References
 - Short Essays (see website for details)
 - FAFSA worksheet or letter from your school's Financial Aid Office

Interested in Social Justice?

The Hope Reichbach Fund actively seeks passionate, enthusiastic, driven college students who are looking for a future in civic leadership in the non-profit sector.

The Hope Fund facilitates PAID summer internships at Brooklyn-based organizations, provides mentorship and a network of contacts to our fellows, and the opportunity to gain valuable real-world experience without working for free.

Applicants have the option of applying with a confirmed internship in place, or having the Fund place them at one. Past recipients have worked at a variety of non-profit and advocacy organizations including: Brooklyn Community Services, Legal Aid, Gowanus Canal Conservancy, VOCAL-NY, Bedford-Stuyvesant Restoration Corporation, Groundswell Community Mural Project, Brooklyn Defender Services, and the HOPE Program.

Hope was a rising star in Brooklyn politics with unfailing dedication to her community and the power of young people to make change. Her legacy and commitment to local activism lives on through Hope Fund Fellows, the next generation of Brooklyn leaders.

apply now!

*Due to Covid-19 restrictions this fellowship may be in-person, fully virtual, or a hybrid.